

Salt Lake City
Oct 11th '05.

Dear Girlie: -

Until the last minute before closing tonight I expected a telephone message from you and am much disappointed that you have not come to town.

When we had closed and I had locked any chance customers out I called up 1769x but had only very little hope of being able to talk with you and June said that Frank came in but no Stella.

We have been staying open rather late the last two weeks and I did not lock up to night until